

freshmen reveals that more than half of them are not aware of their professors' expectations related to the use of others' language or ideas of in their written work.

The "Starting an ePortfolio" workshop introduces students the BU's ePortfolio platform and walks them through basic steps to build and then start adding artifacts to an ePortfolio. The workshop helps ENG 101 students complete their required ePortfolios, but it is helpful to any student building an ePortfolio in any class or for their own purposes.

Students will be able to review available workshops and register (for free) on our website bloomu.edu/writingcenter. (The schedule is still TBA).
